

Aids, equipment and assistive technologies can help you perform tasks you may otherwise be unable to, support you to be more independent, and contribute to a better quality of life. The Community Aids, Equipment and Assistive Technologies Initiative (CAETI) provides financial help with the cost of these items for eligible people with a disability.

Funding is capped at $10,000 per client for a period of 3 years.

□